Asking Questions About The Media

What messages do advertisers send to encourage consumers to buy their products? Asking Questions about Body Image in Advertising will help readers discern the messages, both overt and implied, that tell consumers to change the way they look to help them change the way they feel. Case studies prompt inquiry, further thinking, and close examination of specific issues.

Disaster Zone

New Titles!

Nature is unpredictable, and it can turn our world into a disaster zone. From blizzards to volcanoes, this series looks at the science behind the destruction. How are wildfires related to droughts? What causes a dust storm? How do you stay safe in a flood? Readers can answer these questions and more as they practice reading informational text.

At Home With...

Part history, part Diary of a Wimpy Kid, these books present the history of Ancient Egypt with all the detail of an encyclopedia, with all the "funny reflection" of the Facebook generation. This tongue in cheek history brings out the best in the critical thinking focused classroom. And they present primary sources along with humour and real-life stories to make a popular magazine about "A Day in the Life".
