Teen Emergent Reader Libraries

New Titles!

The Teen Emergent Reader Libraries™ have been developed to solve the issue of motivating the most struggling teen readers to pick up a book and start reading. Written at the emergent and beginning reader levels, the books offer mature, teen-centric storylines that entice teens to read. Formatted as 48–64 page books, these fiction and non fiction selections look similar to other teen novels and feature photographs to reflect a contemporary, age-appropriate tone. In addition, each book is supported by a lesson plan, guided reading questions, a reproducible comprehension activity, and a quiz. The books, combined with the instructional support, provide the perfect solution for today's teacher who has to differentiate instruction to meet the needs of all learners while teaching on-grade-level concepts.

Fiction Dancing in the Rain

New Title!

While struggling with the death of her beloved adoptive mother, sixteen-year-old Brenna reconnects with members of her biological family, hoping to discover why her biological mother broke off contact many years earlier. At the same time, she is falling in love with Ryan, who provides support while she grieves but has to leave her when she needs him most. Despite powerful feelings of abandonment, Brenna realizes that getting strong physically and focusing on the needs of others might just help her move beyond her crippling grief, find peace and plan a future for herself.

Fiction Dark Man

New Titles!

The Dark Man series is designed for middle school and young adult struggling readers who may have never successfully managed to read a book. Each book is short, but mature, with only 36 pages and word counts ranging from 230–380. The text is short and simple. Stories are gritty, full of tension and mystery. The language is terse. The Dark Man is a serious comic hero with his own mythology. Each book is a self-contained story, but each story is a part of a greater whole.

Gravel Road

New Title!

Hard-hitting, contemporary young adult fiction is not trendy—it's not dystopia. There are no vampires, no werewolves, no castles. It's real life. It's unflinching. Gravel Road highlights the talent of YA authors committed to creating realistic fiction with emotional authenticity. No topic is off-limit.

Gravel Road Verse

New Title!

Just like prose, a novel in verse tells a story. But verse is unique because readers access the text through short "chapters" or poems. The structure of poetry makes the books appear less intimidating, with plenty of airy white space. Moreover, the depth and substance conveyed in verse is every bit as deep and real as in a Gravel Road prose novel.

Fiction The Mostly Miserable Life of April Sinclair

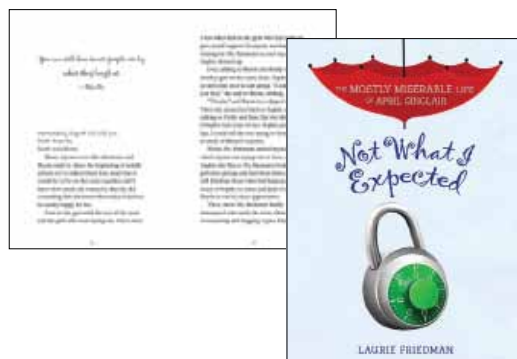

New Titles!

There's one thing April Andrews knows for sure: she was born into the wrong family. Her mom is always creating weird outfits for her, and her dad owns a restaurant and likes to dole out unsolicited advice to his customers (and his daughters). And then there are her little sisters. All April wants is to fit in, lose a little weight, and lead a normal teenage life . . . and also snag the gorgeous boy who moved in next door. Everything seems difficult enough in her small, Southern town, but almost impossible when her freaky family keeps getting in the way.

The Stone Man Mysteries

New Series!

In Scotland of the 1930s, a demon bound in the form of a gargoyle solves murders as a way of seeking redemption. Bound to a church ledge, he gathers a motley group of rogue priests and runaways to do his footwork. As the crimes begin pointing toward a larger, equally supernatural threat, the gargoyle and his assistants prepare to fight for humanity.

Fiction White Lightning

New Series!

White Lightning books addresses a wide variety of themes and interests in a narrow range of reading levels. Encouragement and finding the theme to “hook” students is key. There is a broad range of interest and abilities in this age group, even with struggling readers. These are not YA or elementary books—a fact younger teens will appreciate. Each book is approximately 100 pages with covers that will appeal to young teen readers. The titles in the White Lightning series are designed in a similar style. Students will know what to expect when they pick up a book: a fast-paced story, mature and age-appropriate topics, short chapters, and achievable reading success.

Are They Real?

New Series!

Aliens and chupacabras, angels and fairies, Bigfoot and the Loch Ness Monster. For years, people have reported sightings of these creatures and beings, yet the question remains: Are They Real? Engaging curious minds with tales of mysterious encounters, findings from scientific investigations, and portrayals in popular culture, this series explores the possible existence of these legends. An "Investigate It!" activity at the end of each book encourages readers to decide for themselves what they believe to be true.

New Series!

Once you've been in, it's tough to stay out of jail. That's the hard fact that characters face in these gritty modern-day Shakespeare adaptations, which reimagine the classics with contemporary urban language, characters, and settings. With diverse, relatable casts and real-world problems, these stories explore how rough family situations, gang connections, friendships, and love can all be challenges to teens out of the juvenile corrections system. Plot lines and themes closely following the original plays make the series a standout introduction to some of Shakespeare's most famous classics.

Punctuate It!

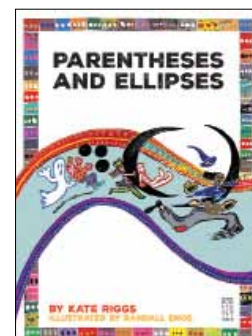

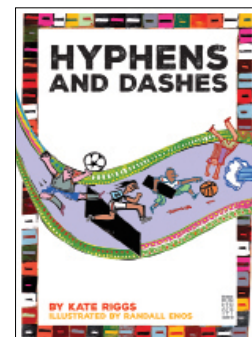

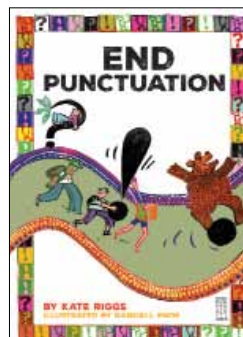

New Series!

Rules, rules, rules! English grammar is full of rules. How are we supposed to remember when or why to use all those pesky punctuation marks? Why bother, anyway, in an age of texting and rampant emojis? When a proper foundation is laid, all forms of communication benefit: Punctuate It! gently instructs young readers (and writers) to think carefully about the marks they see and to choose their punctuation to create meaningful sentences. Vibrant, off-the-wall illustrations lend visual appeal, and "Punctuation Practice" sessions offer opportunities for interacting with key ideas presented in each short chapter. A brief activity closes each book.

Masters of Disguise

New Title!

In the animal kingdom, survival is the name of the game—and not everything is as it seems. A number of animals rely on particularly clever tricks to fool predators or prey. A baby bird mimics a poisonous caterpillar. A moth escapes bats by making sounds that interfere with the bats' echolocation. A tiny rain forest spider builds a spider "puppet" out of bits of dead leaves, insect parts, and other items. Find out more about some of nature's most bizarre and bloodthirsty con artists and meet the scientists who are working to figure out just how they pull off their amazing tricks.

Lifeskills in Action

New Series!

Each 5-book set in the series covers a key aspect of independent living, such as managing money, finding and keeping a job, or completing common household tasks. Developed for students reading at the most basic level, the books range in readability from 1.0-1.7. Each book is actually two books in one, with a nonfiction side and a fiction side. The nonfiction side teaches students about an important life skills topic, and the fiction side helps them generalize the skills as they read about teens in real-world situations.

LIVING SKILLS: Build students living skills with this five-book set. Important aspects of living and managing basic skills on your own are explored in these nonfiction/fiction flip books. Topics include: finding a place to live and moving in, making a grocery list, buying groceries, housekeeping and keeping things clean, and cooking your meals.

To some, fishing is a sport. To others, it is a relaxing pastime. To beginners, though, it can be just plain confusing! This series seeks to guide novices through the basic "do's and don'ts" of fishing. From stocking a tackle box and baiting a hook to landing and cleaning a fish, young anglers will learn how to properly prepare for any fishing outing. Contextualizing the ancient history of fishing with tips on how to be respectful of nature and other anglers, each text works with the others to compile a comprehensive look at the sport. A concluding activity encourages readers to create their own forms of fishing gear.

Swashbuckling Scoundrels: Pirates in Fact and Fiction*New Title!

Since ancient times, real-world pirates have committed robbery on the high seas. This book examines pirates through history—from ancient accounts of pirates controlling the Mediterranean to modern-day reports from Somalia and Malaysia. Readers meet famous leaders, such as Blackbeard and Captain Kidd, as well as lesser known figures, such as the female pirates Grace O'Malley of Ireland and Ching Shih of China. After getting to know these real-life characters, readers will discover pirates through literature, stage, movies, TV shows, cartoons, and video games. This exploration helps readers separate pirate fact from pirate folklore and better understand what motivates real-life acts of piracy in the modern world.

Place Hacking: Venturing Off Limits*New Title!

Leaping from the Eiffel Tower in a wingsuit. Scaling Shanghai Tower, one of the world's tallest buildings. Camping on the roof of Philadelphia's abandoned Eastern State Penitentiary. These scenarios are real examples of the recreational activity of place hacking: climbing, wading, jumping, or even ironing your way into prohibited or obscure spaces. Why do people do it? Is it the exhilaration of trespassing? Is it discovering a new perspective? Is it roving through your surroundings in an unpredictable manner?

Uncommon Women*New Series!

Throughout history, society's rules have often tried to keep women in a box. Serious consequences often awaited those who broke out of that box and blazed a new trail. Uncommon Women salutes the women who refused to be side notes in history, and instead, became the stars of their own story. Through their bravery and intelligence, the women in these books made a lasting mark on the world. Some of them found fame through villainy: pirates, Wild West outlaws, ruthless queens. Others—writers, scientists, human rights champions—devoted their lives to making a better world. None will be forgotten.
